

THE CONGREGATIONAL CHAPEL

THE CONGREGATIONAL CHAPEL

The Plympton Church Chapel was built in 1886. The Rev. V. J. Hartshorn was the Plympton pastor at that time, led the work for its construction. Mrs. Leonice Moulton and Henry M. Dexter D.D., both natives of Plympton each contributed generously towards its final cost of $1100. The kitchen at the rear built in 1923, was made possible by funds left by John Sherman upon his decease.
