

CRANBERRY PICKING AROUND 1900

The above picture was taken by Edgar C. Rogers on the Screen House bog of G.W. and G.H. Randall around the year 1900. The lady sitting up right in the center was Lizzie Bater of Halifax. At her right and back to was Helen Perkins. Directly back of the Bater girl was Lucy Wright and at her right and facing front was Clarence A. Wright. The man standing at the extreme left was Henry Gardener. Notice the filled pail, the lined rows and the positions of the pickers.
