

PICKING CRANBERRIES, forty years ago

This picture is another taken by Edgar C. Rogers, the Plympton Green handiman, on the Randall Bros. Screen House bog sometime soon after 1900. The third couple in from the left are Mrs. Orril Cole and Elliot Wood both from Halifax. The old lady to the right dressed in a dark shirt waist and wearing a sunbonnet was Miss. Mabel Winchester. Directly in back of her bonnet was Inez Smith (Cole). On the bank near the farm wagon were James C. Rickard, the last of the Plympton Rickards, and either Lafayette Fuller or Augustus Ellis.

GUSTAVUS

PICKING CRANBERRIES, forty years ago