

REV. EZRA SAMPSON HOUSE

The Rev. Ezra Sampson, third minister in Plympton, was the ^{pastor} minister for the local church for twenty-one years. He built the above pictured fine old dwelling house on land on the east side of the northern end of the Green. The one acre of land upon which the house was built had been deeded to him by the Parish in a settlement for salary debt. The house has been successively owned in recent years by Herschel Briggs, Eugene Briggs, and Stanley Sears.
