

PLYMPTON BOARD OF SELECTMEN
MINUTES
June 01, 2009

Attendees: Barry DeCristofano, Joseph Freitas, and John Henry
Meeting called to order at 7:30 PM due to camera set-up delays.
Prior to regular meeting there was an Executive Session Meeting at 6:00 PM

7:00 PM APPOINTMENT:

Sandra G. Henry received the prestigious award of "Unsung Heroine." A framed proclamation was read by the Town Clerk and presented to Mrs. Henry. The Council on Aging presented a large bouquet of flowers for years of service to Mrs. Henry. Mrs. Henry was surprised to receive such an out-pouring of appreciation from the Town residents. Mrs. Henry stated that "we recently have lost some wonderful residents and have many more Seniors that could benefit by volunteering and joining the Council on Aging.

8:00 PM APPOINTMENT:

Jake Jacobson and John Leschen gave an update on the repairs made and repair work that is needed at the Town Library. The Library Director, Debbie Batson gave the Selectmen a status sheet listing the library projects in need of repair. The Selectmen asked Jake and John for an estimate of costs to complete repairs at library which include: Gutters, bay window, roof, plaster damage, and painting within the next week. Mr. Freitas commented that there is a dry well on the property and that he will contact the Highway Surveyor to investigate the location of the "old septic system."

Ms. Pat Royal spoke with the Selectmen regarding the letter that she submitted to the Board at last week's meeting. Ms. Royal asked the Selectmen to attend the scheduled Conservation Commission Meeting on Tuesday, June 02, 2009 regarding the Quackenbush property. The discussion also included a Notice of Intent and the recent Wet Land By-laws. Mr. DeCristofano asked Ms. Royal to obtain the Meeting Minutes of the Conservation Commission.

Mr. Henry reported that he has a copy of the Veteran's Agent job description and will forward to the Wage and Personnel Board.
